Notice

As per the manual of National Service Scheme, in each NSS Unit the volunteers are required to work under the guidance of a group leader, to be nominated by the Programme Officer. However, it has been decided that the two group leaders (one each for boys and girls) would be selected by the NSS Volunteers on their own, through an election. This would make the process transparent as well as help in infusing democratic spirit among the volunteers. The elections would take place in the College Conference Hall and no activity related to it would be conducted outside the Hall. In this regard, Volunteers who have been in NSS from last six (06) months are eligible to file their nominations. However, their nomination should be seconded by at least two volunteers. The nomination papers can be had from the Department of History on all working days. The voting would take place through secret ballot system. All the volunteers should be present on the date of voting. Non-compliance would result in disciplinary action. The timeline of the elections is:

1. Last date of filing nomination papers: 04/10/2021, 2:00 pm
2. Date of scrutiny of nomination papers: 04/10/2021, 3:00 pm
3. Final speech day: 07/10/2021, 12:00 pm (The candidates are required to prepare an election speech and present before the volunteers)
4. Date of voting: 08/10/2021, 2:00 pm
5. Declaration of the results: 08/10/2021, 03:00 pm
6. Oath Taking ceremony: 09/10/2021, 11:00 am.
