Notice

Participation in seven days' Special Camp is mandatory for all NSS volunteers to be eligible for receiving the NSS Certificate. However, due to the surge of Covid-19 pandemic in the country in 2020-21, Special Camps could not be conducted and most of the work was done online. Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports has issued a communication holding that the online work of 120 hours done by the NSS volunteers during 2020-21 would be considered as regular activity and that NSS Certificates might be issued to the volunteers without the mandatory participation in 7 days' Special Camp during 2020-21. In this regard, NSS volunteers of the College who completed their graduation in 2020, and have put in 240 hours of service in Regular activities (including online work) are informed to contact the undersigned for the issuance of certificates. The volunteers are required to bring along the following documents:

1. NSS Work Diary, duly signed by the then Programme Officer (s).
2. Copy of NSS Enrolment Form.
3. College Identity Card
