ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

As per the United Nations Executive Summary the COVID-19 pandemic has created the largest disruption of education systems in history, affecting nearly 1.6 billion learners in more than 190 countries spanning over the whole globe. Closures of schools and other learning spaces have impacted 94 per cent of the world’s student population, up to 99 per cent in low and lower-middle income countries. On the other hand, this crisis has stimulated innovation within the education sector. We have seen innovative approaches in support of education and training continuity: from radio and television to e-mode of learning and teaching. We have also been reminded of the essential role of teachers, governments and other key partners have an ongoing duty of care to education personnel. But these changes have also highlighted that the promising future of learning, and the accelerated changes in modes of delivering quality education, cannot be separated from the imperative of leaving no one behind. In the background this webinar aims to unravel the challenges and opportunities of new shift in the post COVID education. We hope this webinar will give us a new experience in augmenting our efforts to deliver and impart education during the pandemic.

Report of the Inter-College Seminar on the eve of Gandhi Jayanti

As part of the Gandhi Jayanti celebrations, National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of the College organised South Kashmir Inter-College Seminar on the theme, 'Relevance of Gandhian Teachings in the 21st Century' on 6th October, 2021. Eleven Degree Colleges, including the host College, of South Kashmir participated in the said competition. Each College was represented by one student speaker. The Seminar started at 11:30 am in the College Conference Hall and was moderated by Dr. Safeer Ahmad Bhat, NSS Programme Officer. Dr. Mohd. Younes Bhat, Sr. Assistant Professor (Political Science) from the host College formally welcomed the guests and brought home the importance of the theme. Principal of the College, Dr. Nazir Ahmad Simnani, who was the Chief Guest of the occasion, presented the keynote address and inaugurated the proceedings of the Seminar. In his introductory remarks he shed light on the rich legacy of Indian National Movement and the contribution of Mahatma Gandhi in it, whose ideals of Satyagrah and Ahimsa were important ideals for bringing peace to the Universe. He stressed on the need to imbibe Gandhian values among the younger generation. Dr. Shahzada Ashraf, Mr. Iftikar Ahmad Pall (Faculty members from the host College) and Ms. Ambreen Gull (Assistant Professor, Political Science at GDC Women, Anantnag) performed their duty as jury.

Student speakers from different Colleges spoke on the myriad aspects of Gandhian philosophy and ideology and their relevance to the contemporary world. It was held that while the world faced challenges at different levels- in the form of social evils, economic disparities and racism, adoption of Gandhian ideals could mitigate the evils to a large extent and make the world a better place to live in. Every speaker talked about the Gandhian ideals of communal and social harmony and stressed on the need to imbibe those values. At the conclusion of the Seminar a felicitation ceremony was held, presided by the Principal of the College, in which the participants were awarded with trophies and participation certificates. The best speaker award was given to Rakhshanda Iram (GDC Kulgam) whereas the second and third positions were given to Ishrat Jan (GDC Women, Pulwama) and Zainab Naushad (GDC Kulgam) respectively. The Seminar concluded with a vote of thanks, presented by Dr. Hashim Iqbal Malik, Assistant Professor, History.

He expressed hope that in Mr. Abrar, Kulgam District would witness transparency and a corruption-free transport department. In his keynote address, Mr. Abrar Ahmed discussed in detail the different aspects of traffic management and the problems there of, specifically in Indian context. He stressed on the fact that given the limitations and the nature of traffic management, it was imperative that the general public extend their cooperation in managing the traffic-related issues by religiously following the traffic rules and regulations. While discussing the latest statistics on road-related deaths and injuries, he held that a majority of the injuries were preventable and only required that the apparently simple traffic rules like wearing of helmet/seatbelt, not over-speeding, avoiding use of mobile phone while driving etc. be followed in letter and spirit. A question-answer session followed in which the volunteers asked questions on the different traffic-related issues. The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Shabir Ahmad Padder, Sr. Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics.

The Workshop was followed by a traffic awareness rally outside the Campus, on the main road. Carrying banners, placards, paintings and posters, NSS volunteers, accompanied by the staff from Motor Vehicles Department, conveyed the message of obeying traffic rules, wearing seat-belts, helmets and avoiding use of mobile phone while driving. Notes were stuck on the vehicles which had been wrongly parked. The drivers in the Sumo Stand were called upon to follow traffic rules

International Seminar on "HIV and Coronavirus Immune Evasion and Rational Vaccine Strategies" on 3rd December-22"

About the Speaker:

Raiees Andrabi | Institute Investigator
Scripps Research, La Jolla, CA

 Scripps
Research

Raiees Andrabi is an Institute Investigator in the Department of Immunology and Microbiology at The Scripps Research Institute. Raiees Andrabi earned his PhD degree from the All India Institute of Medical Sciences in Biochemistry and performed his postdoctoral work in Dennis Burton's laboratory at The Scripps Research Institute. A major focus in his laboratory is to utilize in vitro directed evolution platform combined with structure-guided design approaches to develop vaccine immunogens against complex pathogens such as HIV, Arenaviruses and Coronaviruses. The other major area of research in his laboratory is to understand the immunological basis of B cell affinity maturation pathways to complex antigen surfaces, both in vaccination and in infection and to utilize this information for designing more effective vaccines. The overall goal is to design vaccine immunogens and immunization strategies that can induce protective broadly neutralizing antibody responses against complex pathogens through vaccination in humans. The Andrabi lab receives funding from the National Institutes of Health and The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

As part of the World AIDS Day 2022 celebrations, National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit and Red Ribbon Club of the College organised a one-day International seminar on "HIV and Coronavirus Immune Evasion and Rational Vaccine Strategies" on 3rd December, 2022. The event was held in the College Conference Hall and saw the participation of around 90 students and NSS volunteers besides members from the faculty. Since the event was held in hybrid mode, a good number of participants and scholars were connected virtually via Zoom Meetings to attend the session. The proceedings of the event were conducted by Dr Mohammad Iqbal Rather, HOD Biochemistry. NSS Programme Officer and Nodal Officer RedRibbon Club, Dr Safer Ahmed Bhat presented the Introductory remarks and held that in order to end AIDS it was imperative to give emphasis on spreading awareness about the HIV epidemic, speaking up against HIV stigma, and calling for an increased response to move towards ending HIV. Chief Guest on the occasion, Principal of the College, Prof (Dr.)

Manzoor Ahmad Lone, formally inaugurated the proceedings of the seminar and presented the Welcome Address. He emphasized on the need to speak up for the rights of AIDS patients and ending social stigmatization. Keynote address was presented by Dr Ralees Andrabi, Institute Investigator in the Department of Immunology and Microbiology at Scripps Research Institute USA, via Zoom. The speaker thoroughly deliberated on the theme and talked about the broader aspects of HIV Prevention and the Rational Vaccine Strategies thereof. The resource person focussed on the causes, mode of transmission, clinical manifestations, management and prevention of HIV/AIDS. He described AIDS as one of the major health problems of the modern era. From genetic diversity, Neutralising Antibodies and Reverse vaccinology 2.0 to the Variants of Concern (VOC) and HIV vaccine trials, the Viruses responsible for causing AIDS and SARS were explained morphologically, anatomically as well as physiologically. It was concluded that mRNA vaccine platform is safe, effective, rapidly deployed and flexible for the patients but durability of response is still a potential issue. Audience applauded the speaker for his address. A question-answer session followed in which students raised some important questions. The event concluded with the formal vote of thanks, presented by Dr Mohammad Iqbal Rather.
