Event Report

Subject : Celebration of World Environment Day as part of IIC Activity

On June 5, 2023, Institutions Innovation Council, GDC Kulgam in collaboration with the Department of Environment Science and NSS Unit successfully organized a vibrant and impactful event to commemorate World Environment Day on June 5, 2023. The seminar was a part of the IIC's ongoing activities to foster innovation and create a greener future. The event aimed to raise awareness about environmental issues and promote sustainable practices among participants. It provided a platform for meaningful discussions, knowledge sharing, and innovative solutions to address pressing environmental issues. The keynote speaker, Prof Pervaiz Ahmad Mir of the Department of Commerce, spoke at length on the broader aspects of the topic 'Innovative Solutions to Plastic Pollution.' The learned speaker shared some innovative ideas to curb the menace of plastic pollution by turning waste into a resource. For example, turning plastic into a fabric which can be made into T-shirts, bags and various other useful entities. Participants were greatly inspired after coming to know about Daan Roosegaarde, who was successful in converting Smog into Diamonds, hence reducing pollution and creating an opportunity for livelihood for people. The event not only raised awareness but also motivated students and faculty members to actively engage in sustainable practices. By fostering a sense of responsibility towards the environment, the seminar played a crucial role in shaping a greener and more sustainable future for all. In the second phase of the event an Oath/Pledge Ceremony was conducted. The pledge was read out by Nazima Nowshad, a 5th semester NSS Volunteer. Everyone present in the Conference Hall repeated the pledge after her, vowing to reduce the usage of plastic in their daily lives and preserve Mother Earth. The event concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks by the NSS Programming Officer, Mr Shahid Yousuf Gilkar.

Event Report

Subject: Poster Presentation at International Conference on Nanotechnology for Better Living.

National Institute of Technology Srinagar, J&K organized an International Conference on "Nanotechnology for Better Living" in association with IIT BHU and Parul University, Gujrat from 25th of May to 29th of May under the aegis of G-20. The primary objective of this scientific summit was to provide a platform for the exchange of ground-breaking research ideas and innovative solutions that would contribute to the betterment of humanity. In order to promote active participation in this conference, we encouraged our students to step forward and engage in the event. Three students from the Department of Biochemistry were selected to participate in a poster presentation in the International Conference on "Nanotechnology for better living -2023" on 26th of May 2023. To support and guide them, Dr. Mohammad Iqbal Rather, the Head of the Department of Biochemistry, accompanied the students to the venue, which was the Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology (SKUAST) in Kashmir. The poster presentation aimed to showcase the utilization of beta-Galactoside nanoparticles for the development of senolytics, which have the potential to enhance healthy aging. This innovative approach sought to explore the application of nanotechnology in the field of biochemistry, particularly in addressing the challenges associated with senescence. In conclusion, the participation of our students highlighted our commitment to advancing scientific research and fostering interdisciplinary cooperation.

Use of β -Galactoside nanoparticles to target senescent cells-A means of senolytics

Syed Urwah-Tul-Wusqa, Qurat-ul-Ain, Shafiq Jan, Rayees Ahmad Bhat and Mohammad Iqbal Rather
Department of Biochemistry
Govt Degree College Kulgam

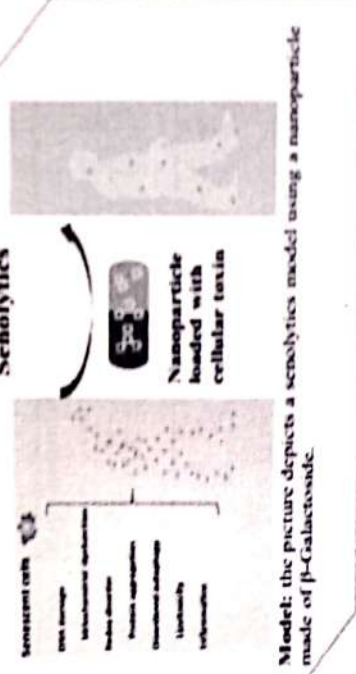

Abstract:

Senescent cells, responsible for unhealthy ageing and age associated diseases, express high levels of beta-galactosidase. Use of nanoparticles made of a beta-Galactoside loaded with cellular toxin could be used to specifically target senescent cells and hence a regimen for the healthy aging.

Expected Outcome:

Since senescent cells express high levels of Beta-Galactosidase, it is likely that the Beta-Galactoside nanoparticle will be broken down in these cells, releasing the toxin and hence causing death of senescent cells specifically.

Experimental Model:

Conclusion:

"Getting rid of senescent cells is key to healthy ageing. Using this senolytics strategy we expect to develop a therapeutic intervention to different age associated diseases including cancer" !!

The event was attended by over 60 participants from various age groups and backgrounds. The workshop was aimed at promoting financial awareness and educating students on financial planning, budgeting, savings, and investments. The workshop was divided into two sessions. The second session was more focused on investment opportunities and how to choose the right investment option based on personal financial goals. The workshop was facilitated by financial experts who provided practical insights on managing finances. The speakers provided useful tips and advice on how to save money and invest in different investment options such as mutual funds, stocks, and bonds. The attendees were encouraged to ask questions, share their experiences, and seek advice from the experts. The workshop was an eye-opener for many participants who had limited knowledge about financial planning and investments and provided a platform for participants to interact with financial experts, seek advice, and learn from their experiences. Respected Sir/Madam,

Financial Stability and Development Council (FSDC), a Standing Committee headed by Hon'ble Union Finance Minister has inter alia recognized the importance of financial education and investor awareness and has adopted a policy document "National Strategy for Financial Education". It has been desired that all national financial regulators (RBI, SEBI, IRDA and PFRDA) and their stakeholders should make concerted efforts for financially empowered India through financial education and investor awareness.

2. In this background and keeping in mind its mandate for protecting interests of investors, Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) along with other stakeholders of the securities market, has started a pan India Financial Literacy and Investor Awareness Program for different segments of the society. It is felt that though a number of citizens are academically literate, there is need for sensitizing them to become financially literate and equip themselves for taking their financial decisions in an informed manner and to do financial planning in a more structured manner so that not only their present is good but also their future is secured. It is our belief that an educated and informed investor is a protected investor.

3. As you are aware, SEBI is the Regulatory Authority of Securities Market and has the prime Objective to protect the interest of investors. It endeavors to educate them with basic premises that "An educated investor is a protected investor", financial education is an important tool, which empowers to make sound and responsible financial decisions.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

The methodology:

1. 60 minutes session - minimum 60 participants
2. No Cost to participants
3. No selling of financial products

Accordingly, SEBI's financial workshops endeavor to impart participants with a better understanding of financial products to equip them to manage their finances. It covers the following topics.

- 1) Introduction to savings and investing.
- 2) Basics of Budgeting, inflation effects on investments, Risk and return, power of compounding and time value of money.
- 3) Choosing the right investment options.
- 4) Investor protection and Grievances Redressal Mechanism.
- 5) The program can be organized on a mutually convenient Date and Time. A line of Confirmation would be highly Appreciated.

Any further query with regard to these programs can be sent to me at 123sabzar@gmail.com or am available at +91 7780902625.

With best regards,

Thanks

Subject: Proposal for organizing session on Entrepreneurship Development in collaboration with JKB Rural Self Employment Training Institute Kulgam.

Sir,

Based on the interest of the students, in entrepreneurship and innovation, this letter is a proposal to organize the session on entrepreneurship for our students in the college. The main goal of the event is to encourage the students to be job providers rather than job seekers. The session will motivate them to think out of the box and re-imagine, to become innovators, inventors and pioneers, entrepreneurs and will be a significant event, for it can allow students to cultivate their interest in entrepreneurship and innovation in an informal environment, reinforce the relevance of entrepreneurship to their everyday lives, introduce students to the possibility of being future employers or innovators, offer students the opportunity to help themselves and their families. We look forward to your approval and endorsement.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Title of the innovation :

"PHYSALLIS ALKEKENGI, A MULTI- DIMENSIONAL PLANT FOR HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENT."

ZAINAB NAUSHAD

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE KULGAM

ABSTRACT :

The medicinal plants are found in a wide variety of ecosystems and landscape elements, across the globe. The Himalayan region's floral diversity includes a strong representation of medicinal plants. Physalis alkekengi known locally as "Kaknuj" is one of the prominent medicinal plants being traditionally used as detoxifying agent, heart-clearing, and anti-microbial agent. From hundreds of years the plant extracts have been widely used in treatment of various diseases such as hepatitis, throat infections, bacillary dysentery etc. the pharmacological study have also shown that P. alkekengi possess extensive biological properties, (anti-tumour, anti-inflammatory, anti-diabetic, anti-bacterial and anti-Alzheimer's). Besides that, the plant is also used for ornamental purposes. Being various important biological properties of P. alkekengi, our team selected the plant for our research work. The plant was rooted in fertile and arid portion of land, as well as in pots and hanging bottles. The plant survived in all conditions and yielded the results from the prospect of fruit, decoration, and high production. Being high medicinal value, the yield of the plant was converted into jam and candies, which provided the value addition to the P. alkekengi. This created a hope for cultivators who earn their bread on the cultivation of different plants. The samples of the jam and candies have been sent to Indian Institute of Integrative Medicine laboratory, J&K, for testing purpose to find any harmful effects. Furthermore, the plant grows widely and can be used easily for decoration as well as food purposes. The result of this study suggests that P. alkekengi can have promising potential to be used as economic source as well as harmless edible medicine for people.
