Report of the Quiz Programme on Road Safety Rules conducted on 14th June 2023:

The NSS Unit of the college organized a Quiz Programme on Road Safety Rules on 14th June 2023 in the Conference Hall of the college. The programme started with an address to the NSS Volunteers by the Worthy Principal, Prof Syed Eazaz Hussain Rizvi. In his address the Worthy Principal praised the volunteers for their dedication and hard work in organizing such awareness programmes on the campus. He asked them to continue their good work and inspire other students of the college to follow in their footsteps. He further pointed out the urgency of following the rules and regulations aimed at ensuring the safety of people in general who have to use roads on a daily basis, as drivers, passengers and pedestrians. A total of 16 volunteers participated in the quiz who were divided into three (03) teams i.e., Team A, Team B and Team C. Each team was headed by a team leader. The quiz consisted of 36 questions on various topics like General awareness, identification of traffic signs and government of India legislations. The questions were divided into three separate rounds: the first round consisted of 15 questions on general awareness, the second of 15 questions on identification of traffic signs and the third of 06 questions on legislations. Prof. Dr Shahzada Ashraf Malik, Senior Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science, Prof Dr Zubair Ahmed Wani, Head, Department of Environmental Science, and Dr Arif Ahmad Dar, Assistant Professor in the Department of History rendered their services as Jury. Also present on the occasion was Prof. Dr Shabir Ahmad Padder, Vice-Principal of the College. The hour-long quiz proved to be not only a tool for testing the volunteers' knowledge on traffic rules but also proved to be a medium for sensitising young minds about traffic rules and significance of following them. At the end of the quiz results were announced by the jury. Team B was announced as the winning team scoring a maximum of 19 points followed by Team A and Team C scoring 18 and 15 points respectively. A felicitation ceremony was held in the second phase of the event in which the participating volunteers were felicitated with certificates of participation and the winning team was presented with a trophy. Furthermore, certificates of appreciation were presented to judges and the organizing team of the NSS volunteers. The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks by the NSS Programme Officer, Mr Shahid Yousuf Gilkar.
