On 12th September 2024, the District Disaster Management Authority, in collaboration with the NSS unit of Govt. Degree College Kulgam, successfully organized a mock drill on floods and fire. The event, conducted under the supervision of Principal Prof. Dr. Syed Eazaz Hussain Rizvi, aimed to raise awareness and improve preparedness among students and staff. NSS Program Officer, Dr. Rayees Ahmad Rather, played a crucial role in coordinating the program, which saw active participation from students, faculty members, and NSS volunteers.

The mock drill, prepared and executed by the State Disaster Response Force (SDRF) team from District Disaster Management Kulgam, commenced at 11:00 AM on the college sports ground. Students and faculty attended in large numbers to observe and participate. Prof. Adil Hameed of the Environmental Science Department conducted a live demonstration of CPR, emphasizing the importance of rapid response during emergencies.

This event was a significant step toward enhancing disaster readiness on campus, with NSS volunteers contributing actively. The collaboration highlighted the college's dedication to ensuring safety and community welfare through practical disaster management exercises.
