On June 26, 2024, the NSS unit of Govt. Degree College Kulgam organized an essay competition to mark the International Day against Drug Abuse. The event was held under the theme: "The evidence is clear, invest in prevention." NSS volunteers and students from various departments enthusiastically participated, showcasing their understanding and commitment to the cause.

Participants were asked to write essays emphasizing the importance of investing in prevention strategies to combat drug abuse. The essays highlighted the long-term benefits of preventive measures, including education, community involvement, and policy implementation. Students presented well-researched arguments, supported by evidence and real-life examples, stressing the need for a proactive approach to addressing the drug abuse crisis.

The competition aimed to foster awareness and encourage students to think critically about the issue of drug abuse and its prevention. The event concluded with the announcement of winners, who were awarded certificates of appreciation. The principal praised the participants for their insightful contributions and reiterated the college's commitment to promoting a drug-free society. The event was a significant step in educating and empowering students to take an active role in prevention efforts.
