On June 26, 2024, the NSS unit of Govt. Degree College Kulgam organized a seminar in collaboration with volunteers from the Department of Education to mark the International Day Against Drug Abuse. The event featured NSS volunteers Mrs. Aayat Manzoor and Ifra Riyaz as speakers, who passionately addressed the harmful impacts of drug abuse on individuals and society. From the collaboration side, notable speakers included Intikhab Alam, District President of the JKRET Forum Kulgam, Dr. Tanveer Hayat, Mr. Showkat Ahmad, and Mr. Farooq Ahmad Tantray. The program was expertly moderated by Mr. Nisar Ahmad.

The seminar aimed to educate and raise awareness among students about the dangers of drug abuse and the importance of prevention. Each speaker provided valuable insights into the various aspects of drug abuse, including its psychological, social, and economic consequences. The collaborative effort highlighted the necessity of a united approach in tackling this critical issue. The seminar concluded with an interactive session, where participants engaged in a meaningful dialogue, reinforcing their commitment to fostering a drug-free community.
