Report: "Chai Pe Charcha" Program on Building Democratic Culture

GDC KULGAM. On May 11, 2024, the Veshaw Electoral Literacy Club, in collaboration with NSS unit GDC Kulgam and Department of Political Science, orchestrated a thought-provoking talk titled "Chai Pe Charcha" at the college conference hall. The central theme of the event revolved around "Building Democratic Culture For Vibrant Democracy," aiming to instill a deeper understanding of democratic principles among the participants.

The event witnessed active participation from both political science students and enthusiastic volunteers from the NSS unit. The students, well-versed in political theories and ideologies, brought forth insightful perspectives during the discussions. The NSS volunteers, known for their community service ethos, added a practical dimension to the discourse, emphasizing the importance of civic engagement in nurturing a vibrant democracy. The highlight of the program was a spirited debate session where participants engaged in healthy exchanges of ideas, challenging each other's viewpoints with respect and intellectual rigor. This debate not only showcased the participants' confidence in articulating their opinions but also demonstrated their ability to work collaboratively as a team, fostering a culture of mutual respect and open dialogue.

As the program drew to a close, the atmosphere was charged with enthusiasm and a sense of accomplishment. The participants, through their active involvement and spirited debates, exemplified the essence of democratic values and civic responsibility. The event culminated on a high note, with participants emerging victorious in promoting a culture of democratic engagement and critical thinking, painting the program with vibrant and resplendent colors.
