Rally Against Drug Abuse Organized by NSS Unit at GDC Kulgam

On 15th October 2024, the NSS unit of Government Degree College, Kulgam, organized a rally to raise awareness about the dangers of drug abuse. The rally was led by the Principal, Prof. Dr. Syed Eazaz Hussain Rizvi, along with the NSS Program Officer, Dr. Rayees Ahmad.

The rally began from the Science Block with an initial group of 30 students. As it moved through the campus and onto the surrounding areas, it gathered momentum, and hundreds of students joined, showing strong solidarity against drug abuse. The large turnout was a positive and encouraging sign of student engagement and awareness.

During the rally, students held placards and chanted slogans emphasizing the need to combat drug addiction and promote a healthy, drug-free society. The enthusiastic participation of the students highlighted their commitment to addressing this pressing issue.

After the culmination of the rally, Principal Prof. Dr. Syed Eazaz Hussain Rizvi addressed the gathering. He stressed the importance of awareness and preventive measures in curbing drug abuse. He urged students to remain vigilant and spread the message of a drug-free society, encouraging them to participate in similar campaigns in the future. The event was a significant step toward fostering a safer and healthier community.
